

Trilegal advised A91 Partners on their second $550mn fund

Thursday, January 13, 2022: Founded in 2019, A91 Partners is a venture capital firm based in Mumbai, India. The firm seeks to invest in small and mid-sized companies operating in the consumer, pharmaceutical, healthcare, financial services and technology sectors.

Trilegal represented A91 Partners' second fund platform in raising approximately USD 550 million from a large number of investors, which include development finance institutions, fund of funds, family offices and also high net worth individuals. The fund platform comprises multiple fund vehicles across jurisdictions including the GIFT City. The fund platform seeks to invest in companies that require funding for expansion in their growth phase. The platform uses a pioneering structure that is expected to be a trend for the coming years.

The Trilegal team comprised Partners Ganesh Rao, Aditya Jha and Yash Bansal with other attorneys including Srikanth Vasudevan, Counsel; Jill Gada, Devangana Kuthari, Vivek Shah, Aditi Sharma and Blanche Christine Dsouza, Associates; Nikita Shrimal, Consultant.

Other advisors involved in the transaction were Deloitte and PwC (tax and regulatory advisors), and Goodwin Procter (Hong Kong) LLP (fund counsel along with Trilegal's representation).

For more information, please contact

Sahil Wason | Tel: +91-8928008122 | BD@Trilegal.com